New players

Synergy team loose Sarah from the team due to other commitments and not enjoying it as much as she used to.

Lauren and Heather announced the interest from a few people in joining the club, interest to be confirmed.

Training to be £1 per week and affiliation to be £21.50

Action: Rachel to write a new signing up form to include permission for: transport, photos, leave training or match alone, taken home by club member.

Kit

The old kit for the synergy team is not being bought back off the players for clarification, as they had 2 months free training at the beginning of the year.

£20 for the new kit deposit has been put forward to only have the £20 held by the club for a year as members could get interest on their money else where. Decision made was £20 to be returned after 1 year.

A Cap to be set on buying kit by April 2010 as there is £300 for recruiting under18s

Website

£300 initially and then £7.50 per month for the server, agreed by committee that that price is very reasonable and will be pursued.

The website to have newsletters, links to England netball etc and the minutes

A specific email address linked to home addresses for members

Sponsor

The Washingborough pub showed an interest to be a sponsor

Need to ask the pub what they are offering as sponsorship at the next meeting.

PFA meeting

The meeting is confirmed for the 28th of January 2010

There is storage for the netball posts but someone needs to go down and measure to ensure that they will fit in.

Action: Rachel and Jeanette to measure

The posts are at Reynolds ready to be picked up when storage is available. The lines on a 2nd court to be painted on has been given the go ahead of the club want to.
